Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended', 'the advancement of environmental protection or improvement', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: Kilmacolm Eco Space exists to advance the physical, mental, social, and environmental wellbeing of the community in Kilmacolm. We aim to do that by developing a sustainable community garden and growing space that provides access to nature, growing opportunities, and other outdoor activities, where local residents of all ages and abilities can increase their skills, well-being and confidence. A dedicated growing space will nourish the community who use it, and the wildlife it supports. Our activities are intended to benefit people of all ages, backgrounds, and abilities . residents with smaller or no private gardens. local Schools and Youth groups. neighbours who might otherwise be isolated. and of course, pollinators, invertebrates, and birds. While we continue to pursue a lasting location for our growing space in Kilmacolm, we undertake a wide range of outreach activities and offer volunteering opportunities as well as partnering with a Primary School.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The organisation's purposes are: to benefit principally the community of Kilmacolm ('the Community') with the following objects: (a) The advancement of community development including the advancement of urban and rural regeneration, through the provision and maintenance of a shared Community asset, with common goals (b) Providing relief for those in need by reason of age, ill health, disability or other disadvantage. This will be achieved by having accessible growing areas, good access for all, and outreach work to housing and other charitable organisations within Kilmacolm. (c) The advancement of environmental protection or improvement through furthering the aims of Inverclyde pollinator strategy and other environmental strategies, which include but are not limited to, recycling and other environmental schemes. (d) To support the prevention and relief from food poverty through education and practical support (e) The advancement of education by providing informal learning opportunities and skill building activities, centred on expanding knowledge of horticulture and biodiversity (f) The provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities by providing growing spaces and support to enable participation in growing and gardening related activities

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner		The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement		My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement		In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention - which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or - to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
