Structure, governance and managementType of governing document

The charity is a SCIO governed by a constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

So far, no new trustee has been appointed. At RCCG TGS, trustees are identified through church networks and the wider community, taking into account the skills, experience and commitment required to support the organisation's charitable purposes.

New trustees will be appointed by the existing Board of Charity Trustees, who have the power to fill vacancies at any time by majority decision at a properly convened board meeting, in line with the constitution.

All prospective trustees must meet the eligibility criteria set out in the constitution and charity law, including not being disqualified under the Scottish Charities Act and not being an employee of the organisation.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The charity's purposes are the advancement and propagation of the Christian faith through the preaching and teaching of the gospel of God and His Christ. The organisation also aims to provide relief to those in need due to poverty, sickness or distress, and to advance education and learning opportunities.

In furtherance of these purposes, the charity seeks to promote Christian values, support community development, and contribute to charitable and missionary activities locally in Edinburgh, across Scotland and the UK, and internationally.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

We delivered our charitable purposes through a combination of faith-based activities and practical community support. We held regular worship services, prayer meetings and Bible teachings. We regularly organised outreach and evangelistic programmes to share the Christian faith and promote positive values within the community.

As part of our outreach, we also hosted a worship concert within the community to encourage faith, unity and overall wellbeing.

We supported learning and personal development by running Christian education programmes, alongside career and skills development sessions, including guidance on accessing employment opportunities. Our activities for children, young people and students provided a safe and supportive environment for learning, mentoring and personal growth. In addition, we held family and relationship seminars aimed at strengthening family relationships, promoting healthy communication, and encouraging stable and supportive family life.

We also provided support to individuals and families experiencing hardship. This included assisting with housing costs such as rent, offering hardship funds, distributing food and groceries, and supplying essential household items such as furniture to those in need. We supported students and others facing financial difficulties, helping them meet basic needs and improve their wellbeing. Through these activities, we made a meaningful and practical difference in people's lives while demonstrating our Christian values in a compassionate and inclusive way.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period (6 September 2024 – 30 September 2025) During this financial period, the charity achieved significant progress in delivering its charitable purposes through a combination of spiritual, developmental and practical support to the community. We maintained consistent delivery of worship services, prayer meetings and Bible teaching, alongside active evangelistic and outreach programmes. A key highlight was hosting a community worship concert in November, which brought people together and promoted faith, unity and wellbeing. We also organised family and relationship seminars, which helped to strengthen relationships and encourage healthier, more stable family life. The charity made strong contributions to education and personal development by running Christian education programmes, career and skills development sessions, and providing guidance on accessing employment opportunities. Our children’s events, as well as youth and student activities, created a supportive and engaging environment for learning, mentoring and personal growth. A major achievement during the period was the level of direct support provided to individuals and families in need. This included: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Provision of support and assistance to those experiencing housing difficulties• Provision of hardship funds and support to individuals going through financial challenges• Distribution of groceries and food supplies, particularly to students and vulnerable individuals• Provision of clothing support to the least privileged within the church community• Donation of furniture and essential household items, including targeted support for physically challenged individuals These interventions made a tangible difference in improving living conditions, reducing hardship, and supporting the wellbeing of beneficiaries. In addition, the charity continued to provide various forms of support and gifts in line with its mission, ensuring that both spiritual and practical needs were addressed within the community. From a financial perspective, the charity demonstrated strong stewardship and improved efficiency. At the end of the financial period, the current account had a balance of £695. We had been able to save (transfer) £15,300 to our reserves (savings account), providing financial stability and supporting the charity’s sustainability going forward. reflecting more focused and prudent use of resources. Spending was prioritised towards core charitable activities and direct community impact, while maintaining essential operational commitments such as rent and programme delivery. Overall, the charity successfully combined faith-based initiatives with meaningful practical support, delivering measurable impact in the lives of individuals and families while managing its resources responsibly and sustainably.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Trustees aim to maintain reserves equivalent to six months of core operating costs to safeguard the continuity of the ministry and to ensure that the charity can meet its financial obligations as they fall due.

The Trustees define reserves as unrestricted funds available for general use, after allowing for any designated funds. The policy is to hold reserves sufficient to cover key operational costs, including premises hire, essential ministry expenses, and other ongoing commitments.

The Trustees strictly preserve the reserves for use in genuine emergencies and in support of the charity's long-term strategic objective of acquiring a permanent building. Reserves are not intended to fund routine short-term expenditure except where unexpected circumstances arise. The level of reserves is reviewed at least annually as part of the budgeting and financial review process.

Details of any deficit

At the end of the financial period, the charity held a net surplus of approximately £15,300, reflecting good financial management and disciplined control of expenditure. The Trustees are satisfied that this surplus is appropriate, aligns with the reserves policy, and supports the charity's ongoing financial stability as a going concern.

Independent Examiner's Report

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The Redeemed Christian Church of God (RCCG) The Good Shepherd, Edinburgh (SC053628)

I report on the accounts of the Charity for the period ended 30 September 2025 which are set out in the following pages.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trust Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiners' statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts (Scotland) Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented to those records.

It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanation from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable course to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44 (1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
