Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

Tibet Solidarity is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation governed by a Constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Tibet Solidarity was initially set up with four founding trustees. Additional trustees may be appointed by majority vote of the board. One additional trustee (Cameron Garrett) was appointed in February 2026.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The organisation's purposes are: a) To promote the human rights (as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights ('UDHR') and subsequent United Nations conventions and declaration and in regional codes of human rights which incorporate the rights contained in the UDHR and those subsequent conventions and declarations) of the Tibetan people, and a peaceful resolution to the Sino-Tibetan conflict; and b) To promote Tibetan culture and heritage in Scotland, for the benefit of the public and the Tibetan community in Scotland in particular.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

- i. Promoting public support for the human rights of the Tibetan people;
- ii. Raising awareness of human rights issues affecting Tibetans;
- iii. Research into human rights issues affecting Tibetans;
- iv. Providing advice to governments and others on human rights matters relating to the Tibetan people, including Tibetans living in Scotland;
- v. Promoting respect for the human rights of the Tibetan people among individuals and corporations;
- vi. International advocacy of human rights for the Tibetan people; and
- vii. Organising and/or participating in events where Tibetan culture and heritage are celebrated.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Tibet Solidarity was officially registered with OSCR on 16 September 2024 and held our first meeting / AGM on 9 December 2024. Following the AGM we agreed to apply for a bank account and this became active on 27 February 2025. However, no funds were received prior to the end of the financial year.

Tibet Solidarity became a member of the International Tibet Network prior to charity registration and had also been acting as the secretariat for the Cross-Party Group on Tibet in the Scottish Parliament. These activities continued following our registration and we participated in digital campaigns and advocacy coordinated by the International Tibet Network throughout the year.

During October and November 2024, we worked with the Tibetan Parliament-in-Exile and the Cross-Party Group on Tibet to arrange a study visit to Holyrood for a delegation of Tibetan parliamentarians, including the Speaker. This took place successfully between 25 and 27 November 2024, coinciding with a meeting of the Cross-Party Group on 25 November. The delegation reported that the visit was extremely beneficial and would help with the ongoing development of their own parliamentary operation and democratic processes.

During the first quarter of 2025, we engaged in advocacy efforts in collaboration with other Tibet groups in the UK, urging the UK government and the UN to take action on human rights abuses in Tibet, particularly the colonial boarding schools.

On 10 March 2025, we held an Interfaith Prayer Ceremony for Tibet, to mark the anniversary of the 1959 uprising. This was well attended and video of the event was later shared online.

At the end of March 2025, we took a delegation led by [REDACTED] MSP to visit Dharamsala, where they met with the Dalai Lama, the Sikyong (Tibetan President), members of the Tibetan Parliament-in-Exile, as well as local NGOs and cultural institutions. This resulted in very useful discussions as well as press coverage in both India and the UK.

Set out on pages							(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)
Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention
	1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and</li> <li>to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations</li> </ul> have not been met, or
	2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
