Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of religion', 'the advancement of health', 'the saving of lives', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: Our charity exists to create a welcoming place where people can encounter faith, find belonging and support one another. Through worship services, prayer gatherings and community activities we listen to and serve our local community, creating opportunities for people to share their experiences, build relationships and find hope. We support people spiritually, emotionally and practically through pastoral care, teaching, children's and youth activities, community events and outreach that responds to local needs. We believe church is more than a Sunday service it is a community where people are heard, valued and encouraged to holistically grow. As a growing church, we seek to reflect the voices and needs of our community while advancing the Christian faith.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The advancement of education. The Love Fountain Church will support young people and adults in attaining skills to return into education and vocational work. The advancement of religion. The Love Fountain church will have the purpose of providing the public in Glasgow and wider Scotland with Christian worship to enhance the opportunities to develop spiritual well-being. The advancement of health (including the prevention or relief of sickness, disease or human suffering). The Love Fountain Church will have the purpose of supporting projects that address both physical and mental health of individuals in the community. The saving of lives. The Love Fountain Church will carry out activities to support early recognition thought training directed towards saving people whose lives are in danger and protecting life. • The provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended, and only in relation to recreational facilities or activities which are: (i) primarily intended for persons who have need of them by reason of their age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage, or (ii) (ii) available to members of the public at large or to male or female members of the public at large. The Love fountain Church would provide community programs offering recreational clubs to support young people and adults with learning difficulties, neurodiversity, senior citizens and/or general members of the public needing occupation in activities to be a part of a community.
