Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of animal welfare'

Beneficiaries: 'Other defined groups'

Objectives: The organisation's purposes are: To advance animal welfare with the aim of advocating for, protecting and creating pet families in the Greater Glasgow area. In furtherance of this object the organisation will promote rehoming of cats, dogs and other companion animals in Glasgow. We will also organise events throughout the year, develop support groups, and resources to connect and empower pet guardians, with the intention of creating a community for them, where knowledge can be shared. We will also provide services such as behaviour modification and pet care assistance. The organisation will promote equity in all things animal welfare, advancing the cause of companion animals and pet guardians in Glasgow by lobbying for improved legislation and policies that impact them.
