Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: We long to see God's people reenergised and inspired to welcome the next move of His Spirit across our land and see more people in our nation turn to God and welcome everyone – exploring, new and established Christians. We do this by providing events that create space for people to come together and join in sung worship, participate in topical seminars, listen to bible teaching session, access relevant resources and organisations and receive time of personal support and prayer. who want to see God move in our land.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: 4. The objects of the Charity are, for the benefit of the public in Ayrshire, the rest of the UK and internationally. 5. To advance the Christian faith in accordance with the teachings of the Christian Bible through the provision of events. 6. These events will include worship, teaching, education, prayer and will support other individuals and other charitable organisations involved in Christian mission work.
