Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of health', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of public participation in sport', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: St Roch's Charitable Trust was established to support and develop community-based activity linked to St Roch's Football Club, focusing on improving wellbeing, reducing inequality and increasing access to inclusive sport and community opportunities in the Royston area of Glasgow. During the year, the charity has supported delivery of programmes including youth football, holiday activities, community events and support for local residents, working in partnership with established organisations. This has enabled us to reach approximately 250 individuals across our activities. The Trust provides governance, structure and sustainability to this work, with the intention of expanding into direct delivery of programmes as the charity develops, ensuring long-term, community-led impact.
