Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: It provides access to a wide range of services and facilities pertaining to Art, including different forms of Painting, Printing, Pottery and Craft. It provides opportunities, primarily for its members, and also members of the Public, through tutored classes, workshops and open days, within its own premises. The Art Club gives opportunities for sharing ideas, experiences and techniques with other members interested in, creative expression, knowledge and understanding about different art forms in an encouraging environment and a safe space. The Club also gives opportunities and support to participate in public exhibitions of artwork through open days, a gallery space in a local shop unit and other local venues. Members volunteer at the Club itself for our Exhibitions, and at the gallery space in a local Shop unit, this provides opportunities for sharing and supporting each other. The club also works with the local primary school promoting Art activities and other Charities.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The organisation's purposes are: The advancement of the Arts in the Kirkcaldy and District area of Fife, as designated by Fife Council and any successor. In furtherance of these purposes the SCIO will:- Offer the provision of recreational facilities and the organisation of recreational activities.
