Objectives: The organisation's purposes are: Our charity aims to provide educational opportunities for individuals who care for family members, helping them bridge any gaps in their education caused by their caregiving responsibilities. This includes assisting carers in accessing education that will be valuable to them in their future lives once, or if, their caregiving obligations conclude. We intend to fund these educational opportunities through local colleges, online learning platforms, and other educational institutions. Our focus is on enabling these individuals to access complementary services through partnerships formed with various third-sector organizations.
