Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: We organise and run a residential music course one weekend a year for the purpose of educating and developing the skills of people of all ages and abilities in playing the recorder

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: • Promote and advance education in the art of recorder playing through teaching, and performance, regardless of the participant's age, background or prior ability. • Encourage the development of musical and artistic skills in individuals of all ages by providing access to high-quality music education. • Enhance cultural understanding by fostering an appreciation for the recorder as an instrument and its role within diverse musical traditions and cultures. • Support the ongoing cultural enrichment of Scotland by offering an inclusive platform for musical and artistic expression. • Promote inclusivity by providing opportunities for individuals from diverse backgrounds to engage in and benefit from music education and performance.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing Document

The Course is organised and runs in accordance with its constitution.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

The Trustees are selected and appointed in accordance with the constitution.

Remuneration of Trustees

The Trustees do not receive any remuneration for their role in the course. Stuart Forrester, one of the named trustees, did receive remuneration in his capacity as Course Director and Tutor.

Charity Trustee Induction and Training

New Trustees are normally recruited from within the organisation and are provided with information and guidance on the additional responsibilities of being a trustee.

Organisational Structure

The Trustees are responsible for the running of the course. It runs annually over a weekend (Friday evening to Sunday afternoon) in August.

Reserves Policy

The charity aims to maintain reserves equivalent to one year's venue deposit and essential running costs.

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of The Scottish Recorder Course are:

- To provide an educational event for the recorder, targeting all age groups, including children, youths, adults, and older people.
- To organise and run an annual event to promote and celebrate the recorder as an instrument in Scotland and beyond.
- To offer training and professional development for teachers, musicians, and other individuals involved in music education, with a special focus on the recorder.
- To collaborate with other cultural, educational, and musical organisations, locally and internationally, to further The Scottish Recorder Course's aims.
- To engage in research and development related to the history, techniques, and pedagogy of recorder playing and early music.

The Scottish Recorder Course operates on a non-profit basis, and any income or property is used solely for the furtherance of The Scottish Recorder Course's charitable objectives, namely, to ensure that no-one faces any barriers affecting their ability to attend the event.

Trustees' Responsibilities in Relation to the Financial Statements

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records and preparing Receipts and Payments Accounts in accordance with the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

Approved by the Trustees and signed on their behalf,

Stuart Forrester

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The Scottish Recorder Course

Year ended 31st December 2025

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2025 which are set out on pages 5 to 6.

Respective responsibilities of Independent examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended), and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended) have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
