Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of religion', 'the promotion of religious or racial harmony'

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The organisation's purposes are: To provide a safe place where individuals can belong, worship, preach the gospel and serve God. A place that people can care for each other and those living in the community. A church that provides the opportunity for individuals to grow in spiritual, self-worth, self-esteem, able to integrate, live a healthy life and fulfil their God given purposes. The organisation aims to do this by: (a) the advancement of religion: To provide Christian faith-based activities such as, weekly church services, fellowships, faith-based conferences, teachings, baptism/christening, funerals, worship, outreach, events, sharing of God's word and preaching the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ in accordance with the tenets of faith and in ways that communities in the UK will be impacted positively. (b) the advancement of education: To engage and empower the children, young adults, adults and elderly within the community by organising trainings, educational events, joint fellowship, musical concerts and provision of resources to help them grow spiritually and all round wellbeing. To help educate and train individuals who are living within the community that are disadvantaged and lack creative and career skills development support. (c) the promotion of religious or racial harmony: To host events and programmes that bring together people from various faiths to celebrate shared values and traditions (e.g., peace, compassion). Encourage collaborative volunteering initiatives across different racial and belief backgrounds (e.g., food banks, refugee support). Host multicultural events, music nights, or art exhibitions celebrating diverse backgrounds. Speak out publicly against racism, xenophobia, or religious intolerance through sermons, social media, or local campaigns. (d) the prevention and relieve of poverty: To provide education and trainings on money matters which will help to address and relieve financial hardship among the people living within the community. To provide practical support such as food provision and meeting practical needs such as clothing within the community.
