

International Association for Biohydrogen

Scotland · Charity number SC054681

Details

Known as	IABH
Status	Active
Legal form	SCIO (Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation)
Registered	2025-10-25
Register	View on the OSCR register

Contact

Address	34 Melville Gardens Bishopbriggs G64 3DE
---------	--

Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science','the advancement of environmental protection or improvement'

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The organisation's purposes are: - The advancement of science, particularly in the field of renewable energy, through promoting the research and development of biohydrogen technologies which can recover green hydrogen waste and biomass. - The advancement of environmental protection, sustainable waste (e.g., food waste, animal manure, sludge, etc) management, and net-zero development and the future hydrogen economy.

Geography

- Main operating location: East Dunbartonshire
- Geographical spread: Operations cover all or most of Scotland

Finances

Period end	Income	Expenditure	Assets	Employees
2026-06-30		£0	£0	-