Objectives: 1. The Advancement of the Arts, Heritage, Culture or Science To preserve, promote, and celebrate the rich cultural heritage, language, values, and traditions of the Akwa Ibom people in Scotland and beyond, through cultural festivals, exhibitions, workshops, and educational programmes that encourage mutual understanding and appreciation among communities. 2. The Advancement of Education To encourage and support access to quality education for Akwa Ibom and other ethnic minority youths in Scotland through scholarships, mentoring, skills development, and collaboration with schools and higher education institutions to enhance learning and personal growth. 3. The Advancement of Citizenship or Community Development To promote active citizenship, social inclusion, and community integration among Akwa Ibom indigenes and the wider Scottish society by fostering cooperation, volunteering, cultural exchange, and civic participation that strengthen community cohesion and mutual respect. 4. The Prevention or Relief of Poverty To prevent and relieve poverty and financial hardship among children, families, and individuals—particularly within the Akwa Ibom and wider Scottish communities—by providing targeted assistance, access to resources, and support services that enhance quality of life. 5. The Advancement of Health and the Relief of Those in Need by Reason of Age, Ill Health, Disability, Financial Hardship, or Other

Disadvantage To promote the well-being and inclusion of elderly and vulnerable individuals by offering companionship, practical assistance, and welfare support, thereby improving health and reducing isolation. 6. The Advancement of Human Rights, Conflict Resolution or Reconciliation, and the Promotion of Religious or Racial Harmony, Equality and Diversity To encourage peaceful coexistence, equality, and understanding among diverse ethnic and cultural groups through dialogue sessions, awareness campaigns, and inclusive community engagements that promote social harmony. 7. The Advancement of Public Participation in Sport and Cultural Recreation To promote participation in traditional and contemporary sporting, recreational, and cultural activities that foster unity, teamwork, and the celebration of Akwa Ibom and Scottish heritage. 8. The Advancement of Environmental Protection or Improvement To promote environmental awareness, sustainability, and responsibility in all cultural and community activities, encouraging members and partners to adopt environmentally friendly practices. 9. Partnership and Collaboration for Community Benefit To collaborate with recognised charities, public bodies, educational institutions, and community organisations in activities and initiatives that align with and promote the charitable purposes stated above for the greater good of society.
