Objectives: The organisation's purposes are: The prevention or relief of poverty Mercy Outreach Global aims to alleviate poverty by providing essential supplies, financial aid, and community support to those affected by hardship, particularly in crisis-hit areas. The advancement of health The organisation will support medical treatment, health-based interventions, and awareness campaigns to improve health outcomes, especially in underserved communities. The saving of lives The organisation will actively engage in life-saving initiatives. For example, Mercy Outreach Global will provide critical medical treatment to individuals in life-threatening conditions, deliver emergency relief in disaster-stricken areas, and respond rapidly to urgent humanitarian cases. The relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage The organisation will assist the elderly, chronically ill, disabled, and financially disadvantaged by offering tailored aid packages, access to services, and long-term support. The advancement of citizenship or community development Mercy Outreach Global will promote social responsibility, volunteerism, and ethical community values through campaigns, events, and structured programmes designed to empower individuals and build resilient, compassionate communities. The advancement of religion Mercy Outreach Global will advance the religion of Islam by helping individuals learn about and practise their faith in a respectful, inclusive, and community-focused manner. This will be done through: Organising public events, educational seminars, and workshops that raise awareness and understanding of Islam. These events will be open to people of all faiths and none, to encourage learning, dialogue, and community cohesion. Providing facilities and platforms for worship, reflection, and spiritual growth, including the sharing of Islamic values, morals, and ethics in ways that promote positive change and mutual respect. Supporting outreach work and community engagement, especially during important Islamic occasions such as Ramadan, to bring people together in acts of service, charity, and remembrance of God. These activities are intended to benefit the public at large, not just Muslim communities, by fostering a greater understanding of Islam, supporting those interested in learning about the faith, and encouraging compassionate action and unity within society.
